

Risk Management

Scott Stout - Director

Mission Statement

To lessen or prevent the effects of disasters and emergencies on the lives and property of the people of Roane County through leadership, response, and coordination.

Office of Emergency Services

- ❖ Emergency Management Agency Division
 - ❖ Division of Emergency Communications
 - ❖ HazMat

❖ Fire Division

❖ Risk Management Division

OES- Risk Management

| 2015/2016 Budget | 2014/2015 Budget |
|------------------|------------------|
| $437,260.00 | $523,322.00 |

Focus of Operations

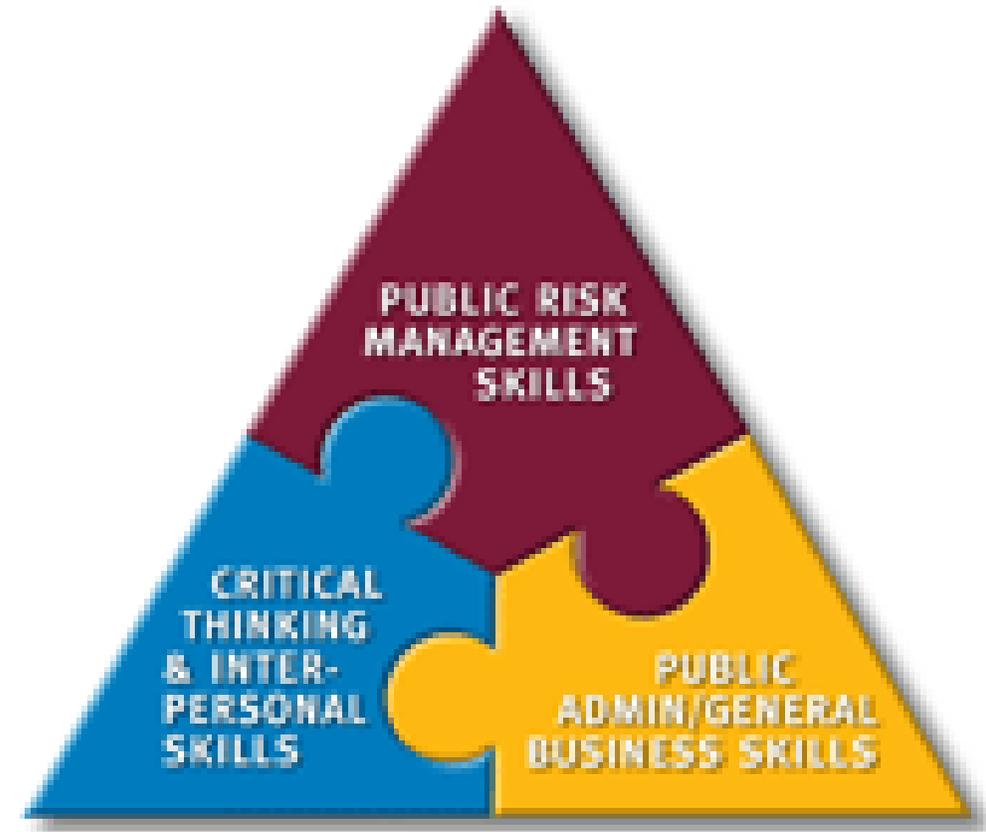

Risk Management Division

Immediate Goals

- ❖ Comprehensive Risk Analysis Assessment for County Government
- ❖ Re-establish monthly safety meetings
- ❖ Evacuation Plan for Roane County Courthouse

Long-term Goal

- ❖ Comprehensive Cyber-risk Reduction Plan & Policies

What is Risk Management?

Risk Management Cycle

Types of Risks

Natural

- Severe Weather Event
- Landslide
- Earthquake

Organization

- Injured Employee
- Disgruntled Employee

Man-made

- Transportation Incident
- Active Shooter
- Dam Failure
- Terrorism
- Cyber Attack
- Energy Shortage

Most Common Risk?

How Risk is Managed

❖ Accept

❖ Avoid

❖ Reduce

❖ Transfer

Risk Mitigation Activities

- ❖ Training
- ❖ Planning
- ❖ Exercises

DOE Risk Mitigation Partners

- ❖ Inter-local Agreement Partners

- Roane County, Anderson County, Knox County, Morgan County, and the City of Oak Ridge (Oak Ridge Reservation Communities Alliance)

- ❖ Roane County Environmental Review Board

- ❖ City of Oak Ridge Environmental Quality Advisory Board

- ❖ Oak Ridge Site Specific Advisory Board

- ❖ Tennessee Department Environment & Conservation

- ❖ Tennessee Emergency Management Agency

- ❖ Roane County Office of Emergency Services

- ❖ Local Emergency Planning Committee

TVA Risk Mitigation Partners

- ❖ Roane County Environmental Review Board
- ❖ Tennessee Department Environment & Conservation
- ❖ Tennessee Emergency Management Agency
- ❖ Roane County Office of Emergency Services
- ❖ Local Emergency Planning Committee
- ❖ Environmental Protection Agency

2015 Professional Development

❖ PRIMA Training

❖ Webinars

Summary

Risk Management is an essential part of the Office of Emergency Services. It is both a process and a function and provides necessary services to employees and citizens of Roane County by identifying, evaluating, and investigating risks of potential financial loss to the county. OES strives to assure that the county is an environmentally safe and healthy place in which to live and work.